In order to obtain police disclosure from Bedfordshire Police, you must have obtained a Sealed Order from the Court outlining what is required and naming all the parties concerned. If there are no court proceedings, you are still able to access information by making a subject access request to dataprotection@bedfordshire.pnn.police.uk however you will only be provided with your personal data and not that of any third parties such as a spouse or child's parent. There is no fee for a subject access request.

Similar to Thames Valley Police, detailed guidance regarding obtaining information about yourself or someone else can be found on the Metropolitan Police website. Again, the request for disclosure may be made prior to any application being filed at the Court, to enable the parties to have a full understanding of the matter. This can be made utilising the London Request Form at a cost of £93.45 providing that the work carried out does not take more than 2 hours.
